I'm walking in the Susan G. Komen 3-Day®!

It's a three-day, 60-mile walk that's making a big impact in the fight to end breast cancer. I've committed to raising at least $2,300 and I'm asking for your help to reach my goal.

If you are considering charitable giving this holiday season, please keep me in mind. Your gift would be more than a donation—it's a show of support for my journey. To register to join me, or to support my efforts with a generous donation, please go to The3Day.org or call 800-996-3DAY today.

Happy Holidays!
