

101 FUNDRAISING IDEAS

ASK! ASK! ASK!

1. Your Participant Center: Send emails from your Participant Center. Customize your personal fundraising webpage with a picture and your personal story. Email your fundraising letter to friends, family, and co-workers and ask them to support you. With the Susan G. Komen 3-Day Fundraise App, you can easily email, call or text donation requests from your mobile phone. Your email will have a direct link to your website and when they donate online, they will automatically receive a receipt for tax purposes.

2. Never miss an opportunity: Now is not the time to be shy. Let everyone know that you are training to walk 60 miles or support participants on their 60 mile journey. When they ask why, the conversation door has been opened. Take this opportunity to tell them why you have chosen to take on this challenge. Let them know your hope and purpose is to eradicate breast cancer. Let them know what your fundraising goal is and then ask for a donation.

3. Adopt a Mile: Ask donors to adopt a specific mile of your walk at a suggested price. For example, a potential donor might adopt mile 52 in memory of her mom who lost her battle with breast cancer at 52. A suggested adoption fee of $60 would raise $3,600

4. Corporate Matching: Take advantage of corporate matching gift programs. Many of your donors may work for companies that have a program like this—their donation could double simply by filling out a form from their Human Resources department and following the steps to submit a matching gift (go to The3Day.org/Matching for further information).

5. Advertise while you walk: Ask local companies to sponsor your efforts and in return you will give them logo or name representation on a T-shirt you wear on the event.

6. Corporate Sponsor Shirt: Identify one corporate sponsor that you can ask for a large donation. Offer to wear their shirt for advertising while training and on the event.

7. Spare Change: Ask your favorite restaurant or local pub to put out a jar for donations of spare change. Decorate it with quotes, pictures, pink ribbons. Anything to get people's attention. We've even seen port-a-potty piggy banks. Put these out somewhere obvious—you're sure to get some attention.

8. Donation for Days: Ask people to donate an amount per each day of your Komen 3-Day commitment. Instead of a $25 donation, encourage them to make three $20 donations! Remember they can pay over the course of four months. Reminding your donors of the option to donate over time is a great way to increase the size of donations (keep in mind that donations can only be paid over the course of 4 months maximum).

9. Birthday: In lieu of a gift for your birthday, ask your friends and family to make a donation to the 3-Day.

10. House-Warming: In lieu of a house-warming gift, ask your friends and family to make a donation to the 3-Day.

11. Wedding Gift: In lieu of a gift for your wedding, ask your friends and family to make a donation to the 3-Day.

12. Retirement Gift: In lieu of a retirement party gift, ask your office to support you in the 3-Day. What an incredible way to kick off your new life!

13. Ask your doctor(s), dentist and veterinarian for a donation.

14. Ask your chiropractor and therapist for a donation.

15. Ask your yoga instructor or personal trainer for a donation.

16. Ask your lawyer and insurance agent for a donation.

17. Ask your auto mechanic or dry cleaner for a donation, or for coupons that you can use at a fundraising event.

18. Ask your neighbors: Write a note to all of the neighbors on your block or in your apartment building to ask for donations. Include an update on your training and fundraising progress.

19. Ask your hair stylist: If not a donation in the form of a check, then perhaps in the form of haircuts! See if he/she will host a hair-cut-a-thon, in the salon (or in your garage!). You can probably raise more donations in two hours of haircutting than you can imagine—be sure to get the word out!

20. Tribute Donations: Encourage your donors to make their donations in “honor of,” “support of,” or “memory of” someone they know who has been affected by breast cancer. This is a great way to let them feel very much a part of your experience. Suggest a donation amount for them to sign a shirt or a placard that you will carry with you on the 3-Day, or print their names on a twist of pink ribbon that you will pin to your shirt.

21. “Sit” for Donations: Baby-sit, pet-sit, house-sit. Offer services to the neighbors to get them involved.

22. National Holidays: Don't forget about Memorial Day, Fourth of July, Labor Day weekend and all of those picnics. Bring your donation forms and a donation jar—ask everyone in attendance.

23. Spinning Class: Hit up your spinning class instructor and classmates. Set a goal at the beginning of the class, and if it's met, everyone donates $1 per mile—or $1 per minute.

ONLINE/SOCIAL MEDIA

24. Email Chain: Ask everyone to forward your fundraising email to 10 more people!

25. Facebook App: Boost your fundraising efforts and promote your participation in the 3-Day by fundraising with Facebook. Add the 3-Day Facebook app to your Facebook page and use it to post regularly. Your posts will automatically include a link directly to your fundraising page.

26. Delegate: Ask 10 friends to change their Facebook status to a message asking for donations for you.

27. Share your QR code: Use our 3-Day App to create and share your own personal fundraising QR code.

28. Photos: Change your social media profile or cover photos to a 3-Day Image! Ask for donations in your status updates or profile.

29. Online Auction: Get friends and family to donate things for you to sell on an internet auction site. Make sure to let bidders know that the items selling price is going towards your fundraising for the 3-Day.

30. Blog: If you have a blog, tumblr, or somewhere you share your thoughts online, write some dedicated posts all about your 3-Day journey.

31. X or TikTok Challenge: Set a challenge for your X or TikTok followers with a specific donation amount and deadline.

32. Time Bomb: Set an online challenge for yourself where you will do something crazy/silly/adventurous if your fundraising goal is met by a certain date.

IN YOUR COMMUNITY

33. Dog walking for donations: Send out a flyer to your neighborhood offering your services to dog walk or dog-sit while the owners are out of town.

34. Walk in Public: Set up a treadmill outside of a store and walk for donations. Set out a donation can for people to drop donations in.

35. Lemonade, anyone?: Have a yard sale with a lemonade stand, or just a lemonade stand. This is a great way to get your kids or neighbors involved and have them feel like they are joining you in making a difference.

36. Benefit night at a local restaurant: Check in with your favorite local hangouts. Many restaurants already have programs in place to help you fundraise at their establishment. Be a guest bartender? A guest griller? Or hand out coupons to their establishment for a percentage of profits for that evening.

37. Bottle Drive: If you are in a state that requires bottle deposits, start a bottle drive. Put flyers around your neighborhood telling people to put their bottles out on a certain day and you'll come by to collect and return them. Let your local school, pool, gym know that you will do the same for them.

38. Rent a port-a-potty for a small town parade: Decorate it (of course we'd suggest pink!), and ask for donations for use.

39. Garage Sale: Ask all of your friends and neighbors to participate by donating items for sale. Make signs that indicate all proceeds are going to the 3-Day. Ask your local paper to run an ad as their contribution. Add a bake sale and/or lemonade stand, and have a straight donation jar visibly displayed. Don't forget to have plenty of donation forms on hand!

40. A Pink Flamingo Flocking: Purchase 10 pink plastic flamingos (lawn decorations). Pick 10 yards in your community to be the lucky recipients. Attach note cards to the flamingos' necks with a phone number and your 3-Day donation information. State that for a $10 donation, the flamingos will be removed but for $15 they will be moved to the lawn of their choice. Make sure you also place a sign that has your contact name and phone number among the flamingos for those who drive by and would like to have the flamingos placed in a friend's yard. For variations on the theme visit <http://www.fundraising-ideas.org/DIY/flamingo.htm>

41. Coins: Go to your local mall or shopping center and ask what they do with the coins in the fountain.

42. "Thons": Cut-a-thon (hair salon), Mow-a-thon, Shovel-a-thon, Rake-a-thon. You name it. You can do it for donations. You can even use local Girl Scout or Boy Scout troops to help be your man power for this fun activity.

43. Check-Out Donation: Create 3-Day donation cards and ask a local store to sell them at the register. People can make a donation as they make their purchases, sign their name or purchase the card in someone else's honor. The store then hangs the donation cards around the registers.

44. Save a "Pear": Get a grocery store to donate some pears and set up a table outside with a sign that says "Save a 'pear'—make a donation to the 3-Day."

45. Donation location at a highly visible location: Set up a table in front of your local grocery store. Get permission first, and then ask everyone who enters to support you. While this doesn't sound very glamorous, it's very effective. Remember that in addition to raising much needed funds, you are also playing an important role in raising awareness. Some walkers give a token pink ribbon as a thank you to strangers who donate at an event such as this.

46. Super Change Jar: Ask all of your friends and family to put aside their spare change to be added to the super change jar. Every month or so, empty it out and let everyone know how much “a little at a time” adds up! This is a great idea to put into action at work, too. Decorate the jar with inspirational quotes and photos from your training walks.

47. Car Wash: Hold a car wash—either in your neighborhood, at your place of worship, or at your place of business. Ask local businesses to donate the supplies you will need and ask your friends to help wash. Add a bake sale; sell chilled bottles of water (that have been donated). If you have enough help, consider adding a dog wash!

48. Used Book Sale: A more focused and versatile version of a garage sale. Ask everyone you know (co-workers, neighbors, family and friends) to donate any books they have read and are finished with. Choose a time and place to have a used book sale—maybe your local farmer’s market, school carnival or community fair.

49. Banner: Have a group of friends, your child’s classmates or a local business help to design a banner that you can use on the 3-Day to mark your tent. Ask people to make a donation as they add decorations or messages to the banner.

PARTY TIME!

50. House Party: Host a fundraising party at your home for friends, family, co-workers, neighbors. Share your experience of the 3-Day and your reasons for walking, then ask them to support you.

51. Spaghetti Dinner/Pancake Breakfast: Encourage your place of worship, work, school or other organization to host a spaghetti dinner or pancake breakfast to benefit breast cancer. Have all of your friends help with the cooking to make an event where families are welcome and are asked for a specific suggested donation amount to join in the fun. Or organize a potluck party along the same lines where everyone brings a dish to pass and gets to socialize with friends and neighbors. Make sure to have plenty of donation forms or 3-Day business cards (go to The3Day.org/Fundraising) on hand at any and all of these types of events for the donors who want to give more.

52. Movie Party: Host a movie party at your house. Every time the word “walk” is said in the movie, everyone antes up $1 in a donation bowl. Have pizza donated and ask for a suggested donation at the door.

53. Wine-Tasting Party: Have a wine and cheese-tasting party. If you know anyone (who knows anyone!) who owns, manages, or works in a winery—ask if they will host it! Ask for a suggested donation at the door. Blind tastings are fun—or dress up the event with some very special vintages.

54. Gala Night: Host an elegant or formal party. Have food and beverages donated.

55. Host a coffee get-together at your home or at a local coffee shop. Ask your favorite coffee shop to donate the coffee (and maybe even some goodies!). Invite your neighbors and friends. Let them know they will have a chance to pay tribute to someone affected by breast cancer (or any cancer) by signing your shirt. Suggest a donation of $20 (or more!) Get creative and have them sign pink ribbons to be attached to your shirt, or pink buttons, etc. You’ll have the coolest shirt on the 3-Day.

56. Pet Birthday Party: Have a fun birthday party for your pet—or a friend’s pet. Serve dog biscuits and ask everyone to wear ears! Ask for a suggested donation at the door. Take photos of your guests with the guest of honor.

57. TV Show Party: Host a party in celebration of the premiere or finale of a favorite TV show. Serve donated hors d’oeuvres and drinks. Ask for a suggested donation at the door. This idea is great for inviting friends over to watch your favorite awards shows like the Oscars®, Emmy® Awards, Grammy® Awards, etc. Ask a local restaurant that has a big-screen television to allow you to have the party there and donate a portion of the food and beverage sales.

58. Movie/TV Marathon: Host a movie or TV series marathon. Choose a theme (The Big Bang Theory, Grey’s Anatomy, Modern Family) and start the popcorn! Ask for a suggested donation at the door. Enhance the theme with a suggested $1 donation every time a specific word or phrase is spoken.

59. Themed Music/Dance Party: Host a music/dance night—50’s, 60’s, 70’s, 80’s style. Play all of the old favorites. Ask people to come dressed in costume and dance the night away. Serve donated drinks and food. Ask for a suggested donation at the door. You can even ask a DJ if they’d donate an evening for you, so you can have a complete selection of tunes!

60. Crafting Party: Host a crafting party at your house, or at the local store. Ask a pro to lead an inspirational idea exchange and have some great samples on display, some special supplies and/or discounts for attendees. Serve donated food and drinks and ask for a suggested donation at the door.

61. Game Night: Host a game night; Monopoly, Trivial Pursuit, Scrabble, Poker, Bridge, Bingo. Serve donated food and drinks. Ask for a suggested donation at the door.

62. Sweets Party: Have a dessert auction at work! Ask local restaurants, bakeries and groceries to donate yummy desserts. Post signs at work well in advance, and then bring all of the desserts in to work on Friday. Hold a silent or live auction—who doesn’t need dessert for the weekend? Add on to this by making pink ribbon cookies or some other treat that you can sell for $1 each while you have everyone in the mood for sweets! Add on even more by getting coffee donated—and sell the coffee to go with that cookie!

63. Tea Party: Host a traditional High Tea, or ask a local hotel to do so on your behalf. Ask for a suggested donation at the door.

64. Kids' Game Day: Invite your kid's friends, nieces and nephews, the neighborhood kids, the soccer team, to a game day at a local park or donated indoor location. Like a drop-off party, you coordinate a couple of hours of fun activities and ask the parents for a donation in exchange. Tetherball, Four Square, Jump Rope, Potato Sack races, Yo-Yo contests, you name it! Have donated snack food and juice boxes available to round out the fun.

65. Swim Party: Ask a local public pool to donate (or rent at a reduced rate) a couple of hours for a private party. This is a great way to get teenagers involved in the fundraising effort. Have donated snacks on hand, and be sure to include a lifeguard. Turn on some music and ask for a suggested donation at the door.

66. Children's Birthday Party: Post signs at local schools and child care centers offering your party planning services for a sizeable donation. Plan a theme party and get supplies, favors, food and beverages donated. If you are crafty you could even make costumes. Some ideas are a Princess Party or a Harry Potter Party.

67. Silent Auction: Ask some local businesses to donate items or gift certificates and hold a silent auction at your fundraising event, or on a payday at work. Things like a book of car wash certificates, $10 off dry-cleaning, movie passes, play tickets, restaurant gift certificates, pet grooming, a week of free coffee; the list is endless! Set minimum donation limits and allow people to bid them up. Some walkers even get their place of business to agree to set up a silent auction for one item every Friday at work. They get something donated and the office has fun bidding on something new each week.

68. Live Auction: Same as above, but with an energetic auctioneer. Good for a large crowd and some big-ticket items; a trip for two, a special bottle of wine, landscape, pool or housecleaning service, auctioning off husbands for handiwork.

69. Golf Outing/Tournament: Work with a local golf course to plan a charity golf outing. Ask for a specific suggested donation amount to participate and see if you can get prizes donated for the winner of each hole, or the whole course.

70. Special Screening: Ask your local movie theatre to donate a special screening of a new release. Invite everyone you know and make flyers to get the word out. Ask for a suggested donation at the door. Ask if the theatre will also donate a percentage of the concession sales for your event!

71. "Fill in the blank for boobs": Host a fun event using a creative name to catch attention. Who couldn't resist attending one of these: Bingo for Boobs, Bowling for Boobs, Bartending for Boobs?

72. Poker Tournament Party: Set up some tables and snacks and let the bluffing begin. Ask for a specific suggested donation amount to join the tournament and the winner gets their name in a place of honor on your 3-Day T-shirt or hat. Make it an annual event.

73. Bowling Party: Ask your local bowling alley to donate some lanes for a fundraising party. Invite your office-mates as a team-building experience, your neighbors, your family or a group of old friends. Ask for a suggested donation at the door.

74. Candy Jar: Put out a jar of candy at work and ask for a 3-Day donation each time someone takes a piece.

75. Baseball Game: Or other local sporting event. Buy a section of tickets at a group rate and ask your family and friends for a donation of twice the price. Get food donated and host a tailgate party.

FUNDRAISE AT WORK OR SCHOOL

76. Loose Change Day: Ask your child's school to have a "Loose Change Day." Make a flyer encouraging each child to bring in loose change from their house to be donated. Encourage the math classes to assist with counting, predicting and rolling the change. This is a great way to involve the entire school. You can hold this event multiple times; every week or every month.

77. Personal vending machine at work: Have you ever wondered how much money the vending machine at work clears in a single week? Find out! Purchase some of the office favorites in bulk (or better yet have them donated!), mark them up, and sell them from your desk for $1 or $2. If you have a way to keep them cold, do the same with bottled water and sodas.

78. Lunch Room: Put up a display in the lunch room at work (a sign with your picture and a note about what you are doing); be sure to include a jar for donations and a stack of your donation slips.

79. Dress Down Friday: Ask your boss if you can host a "Dress Down Friday." Employees buy a button and get to dress down on an assigned day.

SPREAD THE WORD

80. Say It With Color: Color your hair pink or shave your head for donations. Become a human conversation starter and see how much attention you can draw to your dedication to the cause.

81. Signing Your Correspondence: Get in the habit of signing your correspondence with your name followed by your Participant ID number. You'll be surprised at how many people will ask you what it means. You can use this method for letters and emails.

82. Voicemail: Change your voicemail and answering machine messages to announce the fact that you are walking in the 3-Day. This will be news to some and a reminder for all!

83. Labels/Business Cards: Create (or order) return address labels and/or business cards that state, “I’m participating in the Susan G. Komen 3-Day. Will you sponsor me?” Don’t forget about the 3-Day business cards we have on our website (go to The3Day.org/Fundraising).

84. Meet the Press: Contact the editor of your local paper, or your company newsletter—or both! Ask them to interview you about what you’ve undertaken and why, and include a request for support. Be sure they include instructions in the story for how readers can make donations to you.

85. Speak at your place of worship: Ask your local place of worship if you can speak to their congregation about the 3-Day and your commitment after a service and set up a table to collect donations afterwards.

TAP LOCAL TALENT/BUSINESSES

86. Actors: Ask your thespian-oriented friends to improvise for a “play party.” Invite all of your friends; serve hors d’oeuvres and ask for a suggested donation at the door.

87. Ask your yoga instructor or personal trainer for a donated class: Invite your friends to attend a special yoga/aerobics/step class donated by a trainer. You ask for a specific suggested donation amount at the door, and the trainer gets the chance to build their client base. It’s a win-win for all.

88. Car Wash—Take Two: Go to your local car wash and talk with the owner/manager about doing a fundraising event there. Many people go to the same car wash every week. Post flyers a week in advance, then spend a few hours talking with people about what you are doing at the cashier stand. Hand people a flyer, accept donations!

89. Karaoke: Ask your local karaoke place to host a benefit night. Invite all of your friends; ask for a suggested donation at the door.

90. Rock On!: If you know musicians, ask them to perform a benefit concert at a backyard BBQ, block party or local club. The admission ticket is a check made payable to the 3-Day.

91. Play Tickets: Ask your local playhouse to donate tickets and then auction them off. Better yet, ask them to donate season passes!

92. Creative Friends: Ask a local artist or creative friend to donate a piece of art or jewelry that you can auction off. If you aren’t creative yourself, ask a friend to design a thank you card or blank note card that you can package, tie up with a ribbon and sell.

93. Ask your travel agency for a plane ticket to raffle off, a night in a hotel, or a weekend getaway. (Please check your local laws regarding raffles.)

94. Hair Salon: Ask your hair salon if they will donate $5 from each haircut over the course of a weekend to the 3-Day.

95. Gym: Ask your gym if you, or they, can teach an aerobics, yoga or spinning class as a benefit for you.

96. 50 States Represented: Get a donation from someone in each of the 50 states.

97. Happy Hour: Wear your 3-Day shirt to Happy Hour and ask people to sign it for a $10 donation. Ask the DJ to announce that you are in the bar.

WORK IT!

98. Bartender: Ask your favorite restaurant if you can guest bartend for a night and keep all of your tips. Make sure you invite all of your friends to come in that night.

99. Holidays Lights: Offer to put up your neighbors’ outdoor Christmas lights. It’s a job no one wants to do, and they might be delighted to have it done for them, especially if it’s for a donation to the 3-Day.

100. Use Your Talent: Offer any talent or skill that you have for a minimum donation; graphic design, massage, hair stylist, make-up stylist, photography, computer skills, sewing, music, baking, cake decorating, etc. Ask talented friends to donate their skills to your fundraising effort. Tie-in ideas with holidays, celebrations and party themes (weddings, makeovers, baking party, holiday portraits).

101. Sell Space on a Shirt: Sell small blocks of space on a shirt you plan to wear on the 3-Day for a suggested $20 donation. Encourage donors to write a tribute to you, a friend or a loved one. The more you can make your donors feel a part of your experience, and therefore a part of the cure, the more they are likely to give on your behalf. Having them sign something you will walk with is a great way to accomplish this.
